WINTER DAYTRIP

WDT THE ST. PETE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS AND THE CHIHULY COLLECTION

Enjoy A Day Of Art with Art Historian and Lecturer Kevin Costello

Visit two outstanding facilities in St. Petersburg, Florida. First we will visit the St. Pete Museum of Fine Arts, a world-class museum with a collection covering almost 5,000 years of civilization in thousands of objects extending from antiquity to present; fascinating traveling exhibitions; masterpieces of Monet, O'Keefe, De Kooning and many others; a respected photography collection; a sculpture garden, and a glass gallery. We'll enjoy lunch at a select local eaterie in St. Pete and then visit the Chihuly Collection, a gem of a gallery featuring the spectacular works of the world-renowned glass sculptor, Dale Chihuly. There will also be a glass-blowing demo in the Hot Shop next door. Our buses are comfortable, air-conditioned, and equipped with a microphone and a restroom. The bus departs promptly from the Centre Shops parking lot at 9:00 AM. Your price includes lunch, tour guide, museum/gallery admissions, and driver gratuity. Daytrips always sell out, so register early!
